PARIS ATTACKS, the Moroccan authorities, who last weekend Gelel Attar (26) arrested, found no evidence that the Belgian IS-warrior directly what to do with the attacks in Paris. Writes De Standaard.

According to authorities in Morocco, he is friends with Abdelhamid Abaaoud, the suspected mastermind behind the attacks. He also had close ties with Chakib Akrouh, which was identified last week as the suicide bomber who blew up in the besieged apartment in Saint-Denis. Attar spent several months in Syria in 2013. Then he returned to Belgium, to move eventually to Morocco. Last year he was convicted of five years in prison during the great trial of the recruiter Khalid Zerkani. Because of an international arrest warrant issued by the Moroccan authorities, he is now detained. According to Morocco So far, no immediate connection between Attar and the attacks of Paris, but it is further investigated. Attar spoke it out against the attacks of Paris on social media.
