

Search

Search

NEWS HOME US WORLD POLITICS TECH SCIENCE ODD NEWS ... Follow

Penpixmap of Paris terror suspects

, 2016

What to Read Next

Persons involved in Paris attacks (top-bottom, L-R)
Abdelhamid Abaaoud, Salah Abdeslam, Mohamed Abrini, Foued Mohamed Aggad, two unidentified men who blew
More

All in the Family! The Kardashian-Jenners Come
Together to Celebrate Rob's Birthday (Sans Blac Chyna)

People

Brussels (AFP) - Top Paris attacks fugitive Salah Abdeslam, arrested on Friday in a police raid in the gritty Brussels district of Molenbeek, was c of the most wanted men in Europe.

Another two suspects are still on the while 11 people have been charged in connection with the November 13 assaults in the French capital that claimed 130 lives.

Turkey Blames Islamic State for Istanbul Blast

WSJ Live

Three others are behind bars elsewhere.

Here is a summary of the main suspe

- The latest capture -

Salah Abdeslam, 26, a Belgian-born French national, is believed to have played a key logistical role in the attacks,

Adele Left Fuming After Hacker

and fled across the border to Belgium hours after the killings.

Leaks Intimate Pregnancy
Photos

Stephanie Soteriou

He and his brother Brahim, who blew himself up in Paris, had run a bar together in Molenbeek that was shut down by the authorities just weeks before the massacre.

Friends and locals had said they were fond of drink and a joint and that there was no sign they were radical Islamists with murderous intent.

Bus crash in Spain

Yahoo News

- Two on the run -

- Mohamed Abrini, 30, was filmed with Abdeslam on November 11 at a filling station on a motorway linking Paris and Brussels.

Abrini and Abdeslam became friends when they were teenagers, according to their families, who are next-door neighbours in Molenbeek.

Obama and Family Depart for Cuba

Associated Press Videos

- The real name of the second fugitive unknown.

He used false papers in the name of Soufiane Kayal at the border between Austria and Hungary on September 9 when he was travelling with Abdeslam and Mohamed Belkaid, a 35-year-old Algerian who was shot dead on Tuesday during a police raid in Forest, southwest of Brussels.

Why the Spurs aren't making much of the win they had to have against the Warriors

Yahoo Sports

The three men posed as tourists heading to Vienna on holiday and did not raise suspicions.

Belgian investigators say Belkaid "more than likely" used the alias Samir Bouzid

Live updates: Following Obama through historic Cuba visit that likely used the alias Samir Boudia.

Olivier Knox

- 11 charged in Belgium -

- Mohammed Amri, 27, and Hamza Attou, 21, brought Abdeslam back to Belgium several hours after the Paris attacks.

- Lazez Abraimi, a 39-year-old Moroccan living in the Brussels region, was arrested after traces of blood and two handguns were found in his car.

Kyle Busch finds himself in a fix for comments after Xfinity Series race

Sporting News

- Ali Oulkadi, a 31-year-old French national, drove Abdeslam through Brussels the day after the attacks and dropped him off at a safe house used a workshop for manufacturing of explosive belts.

- Abdeilah Chouaa, 30: His name was discovered in the prison cell of a man detained in the southern Belgian city of Namur whom Abdeslam phoned on the evening of November 13.

Suicide attack in Istanbul

Yahoo News

- Mohamed Bakkali: A BMW car that hired was seen in the immediate proximity of three safe houses in which the Paris attacks were prepared.

"Zootopia" tops box office food chain

- Samir Z: A French national born in 1995

Reuters Videos

was arrested in late November at Brussels airport when he was on the point of leaving for Morocco. He was freed in February.

- Pierre N: A Belgian born in 1987, close to Paris suicide bomber Bilal Hadfi. He was remanded in custody until late

Legal fight ramps up over Paris

December.

attacks suspect Abdeslam

AFP

- Abdoullah C: Born in 1985, of Belgian nationality, had on several occasions talked by telephone with Hasna Aitboulahcen, the cousin of suspected Paris attacks mastermind Abdelhamid Abaaoud who was killed along with him during a police raid outside Paris five days after the rampage.

- Ayoub Bazarouj: a 22-year-old Belgian living in Molenbeek where investigators mistakenly thought they had tracked down Abdeslam three days after the attacks. He was freed on January 22.

- Zakaria J: Born in 1986 and of Belgian nationality. Reportedly a friend of Abaaoud.

- Three held elsewhere -

- Ahmed Dahmani, 26: A Belgian of Moroccan origin, he was arrested in Turkey where he arrived from Amsterdam the day after the Paris attacks. Believed to be heading to Syria when he was stopped, he is suspected of helping choose the targets in Paris.

- A Belgian of Moroccan origin identified as Gelel Attar by Brussels prosecutors was arrested in Morocco on January 18 on suspicion of having direct ties to the Paris attackers.

- An Algerian living in Belgium and suspected of having links with the Paris attacks was arrested on February 27 in Algeria. Algerian press reports identified him as Zouhir Mehdaoui, 29, a close associate of Abaaoud.

Help Privacy Suggestions About Our Ads Terms