The lawyer for Mohamed Bakkali wants the will of El Bakraoui be added to the file

BELGA Published on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 13:23 - Updated Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 1:24 p.m.

BELGIUM Bakkali Mohamed, who was arrested on 26 November in Brussels as part of the Paris attacks, appeared Thursday before the Brussels council chamber, said his lawyer Sebastian Courtoy, who declined to say whether he or had not requested the release of his client.

The man is accused of terrorist murder and participation in a terrorist group. "According to several media, the will of Ibrahim El Bakraoui (which was discovered on a computer abandoned in a nearby trash from the apartment of Max Roos Avenue in Schaerbeek ed) my innocent client. Moreover, no trace of his DNA was found in the searched apartments "me Courtoy said.

"For 15 days, it will has not been received. As a result, several defendants in this case refuse to talk because if there are parts that exonerate them and which are not in the file, it does not give them confidence in justice, "he concluded.

The role of Mohamed Bakkali in the attacks remains unclear for now. BMW he rented was seen near two houses where the attacks were prepared in Charleroi and Auvélais. Under a false identity, he would also rented an apartment in Schaerbeek where footprints were found Salah Abdeslam. Finally, investigators found at his home a video demonstrating the espionage charge of an Mol nuclear site.

Mohamed Bakkali also rented the apartment of Max Roos Street in Schaerbeek, where El Bakraoui brothers stayed before the Brussels attacks.
