which aims to ensure security in the territories it controls, but also outside.

According to this testimony, nearly 1500 jihadists participate in this security organ, called EMNI. "It is directed by an Iraqi emir is number three or four" in the EI ensures that French heard by ISB. To integrate this network, it would be recommended by a "trusted person".

Each spy would provide 50,000 euros for an attack in Europe

The objective of the EMNI would, reports Le Parisien, to "detect spies in Iraq and Syria", a country where Islamic state group controls large parts of territory. As for the external mission of this body is "sending people all over the world to carry out violent actions, kill or recruit young or reduce chemicals for weapons". Each spy and would provide 50,000 euros to commit an attack in Europe.

The French prison, which now faces a heavy prison sentence, ensures have additional information about it, but rather not disclose all for now. "I know two ways to recruit and send people in Europe commissioned to attack, he says. I also have information to prevent terrorist attacks in Belgium and France. But I will not say more, I want guarantees of justice."

Seuls les politiques européens encouragés par les pas bons à grand chose de Bruxelles, ne veulent surtout pas que cela change. Mettre la vie des Européens en danger ne les soucient guère. Seuls compte pour eux leur sécurité et l'argent perçu pour ne rien faire.

Je doute fort de la crédibilité de cet individu, il cherche surtout à réduire sa peine de prison. Et pour ce qui est des "espions", on est très loin de 007, sans sous estimer leur dangerosité, on à quand même pu constater qu'ils n'avaient pas l'électricité à tous les étages.
